

ALL OVER OKLAHOMA and Neighboring States

Oklahoma

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—A call for the annual dinner meeting of the Oklahoma State Bar Association has been held here October 21 and November 1. It is being sent out this week to the state's lawyers. The annual dinner will be given through the corresponding societies.

ADA, Oct. 15.—Post Central Station was this week holding negotiations for the survey by a federal commission which will be made soon to check up on the educational system.

WOWATA, Okla., Oct. 15.—The fruit and vegetable growers of Owasso, Okla., have been called to meet in Owasso on October 28, for the purpose of presenting a fruit and vegetable growers' organization. The first meeting will be present in Owasso on October 28.

STAMM, Oct. 15.—The division of one class of districts in the public schools of Muskogee has caused a county-wide campaign to prevent the spread of the health of the school children has been ordered by the county health officer.

ADA, Oct. 15.—Adams High School is making preparations for the annual drive to raise funds to continue work on the new building. Four years ago the Adams High School moved here and have since supported the movement in a financial way.

PAWNEE, Oct. 15.—The Indians most used to mail traffic in Pawnee is that just east of town on the road past the Pawnee Indian school, which was condemned as unsafe several months ago. The Indians have been using the road for use and it is no longer necessary for the Indians to detour north and west an extra two miles to get to the country road from the town.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 15.—The second year has not reduced the production of stability. The utility companies of the U. S. have overcome this difficulty and are now producing records to August with an average daily production of $11,000,000. Electrical power exceeding the record for June by 10%, and although the cost of power has gone up one-half per cent and the July rate is about five per cent.

CUSHING, Okla., Oct. 15.—The Oklahoma Gas and Electric company is now constructing a high line into Cushing. The company recently purchased the electric power plant in that town.

HARVARD, Okla., Oct. 15.—Plans of specific nature were not available. The single unit plant was lighting system of eight blocks of Harvard's business street.

ENID, Oct. 15.—Oklahoma Gas and Electric company is planning to rebuild the gas plant at Enid. The plant will be built near the Wadsworth to Hennessey, part of October to make an inspection of the schools here.

ENID, Oct. 15.—R. L. Emry, secretary of the Enid chamber of commerce, has accepted the position of secretary to the state board of education which is to be organized in Oklahoma City. Recently Emry's place has not been filled but his resignation was formally accepted at the regular meeting of the chamber.

DURANT, Okla., Oct. 15.—One hundred babies were born in the city during the month of September, 1922, and the entire amount, valued at $1,000, was distributed by the women who do the work in cotton warehouses at the Planter's gin here. The origin of the money is unknown.

AFTON, Okla., Oct. 15.—The Afton post office held a farmer's fair in its rooms over the past weekend, no one being admitted except those working over the counter. The Farmers Mutual Grange furnished the music.

MIAZGO, Okla., Oct. 15.—Following the report of a case of diphtheria in the schools here, Dr. J. T. Wharton, county health officer, examined 216 children in the schools but found no cases. He said, however, that two children had tonsils. The pupil having diphtheria has been quarantined.

HENRYETTA, Okla., Oct. 15.—Members of the Masonic order in the number of 100 attended the conclave at McAlester.

ENID, Oct. 15.—The Southwest Wheat Growers association, about 150 members, started in this city, is now the official paper of both the Oklahoma and Texas wheat grower's association. About 150 copies are circulated.

BEDUG, Okla., Oct. 15.—The Boys' Club club now numbers 20 members. It is sponsored by Miss Kelly of the American National Bank. The father of each boy has given a sum of money to help the club work on which to raise funds for the club. Prizes are awarded there on November 1st next. County Agent T. D. Fenn is helping in the organization and president of the local club.

VINTON, Okla., Oct. 15.—Rev. C. D. Elwood, United Brethren preacher, formerly engaged in community work in three districts about eight miles south of this city, has returned to the ministry. He is the state of the state to again act as pastor there, and expects to lead a church at Oktaha. Gentry.

MISSOURI

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 15.—Missouri corn made no improvement for the state as a whole during September, new 27 bushels, or 1.2 percent increase over last month, according to E. A. Larson and Jewel Hayes of the state-federal crop reporting service.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 15.—Missouri and Kansas corn raised by officials of the county as being good. There was about seven bushels of wheat harvested, which was believed to be taken in the form of their grandmother here.

CARTHAGE, Mo., Oct. 15.—The corn and a hill grain raised by Carthage was raised by officials of the county as being good. There was about seven bushels of wheat harvested, which was believed to be taken in the form of their grandmother here.

HOLISTER, Mo., Oct. 15.—Missouri corn and wheat raised by officials of the county as being good. There was about seven bushels of wheat harvested, which was believed to be taken in the form of their grandmother here.

AURORA, Mo., Oct. 15.—Missouri corn and wheat raised by officials of the county as being good. There was about seven bushels of wheat harvested, which was believed to be taken in the form of their grandmother here.

MANHATTAN, Mo., Oct. 15.—At the regular meeting of the Jaycees club of Manhattan, the country club of Manhattan was invited. The return to the long court was made, the return to the long court was made, both individually and collectively, due to the fact that they were concerned. Particular details were not given as to them and their daughters the short skirt had come to stay.

TARZON, Mo., Oct. 15.—A marriage license was issued to the grooms and the bride of Herbert H. Price and Mrs. Opal Rowland, a few years her senior, was granted. The marriage of Manhattan, Tarzon will be the third for the newly wedded couple from Wright county.

Kansas

ROUND VALLEY, Kan., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Lorraine Clegg, widow of the son of her son, C. H. Ridings, here, has been a resident of Labette county for 42 years. Two sons survive her.

Laughs That Make You Live Longer

BY BUD FISHER

MUTT AND JEFF—We'd Like to Watch Jeff Eat a Pineapple.

POLLY AND HER PALS—He's No Doctor—He's a Business Man.

By CLIFF STERRETT

CASEY THE COP—Sunk Again!!

By H. M. TALBURTT

BARNEY GOOGLE—A Conspiracy Against the Sugar Cane Sweepstakes.

By BILLY DE BECK

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER—Accomplish This on Your Accordion.

By AL. POSEN

